LOCAL MATTERS.

D Troop, 1st Cavalry, has by command of Gen. Schofield been ordered to California to engage in the Modoc war.

GARDNER's train came in on Thursday from old camp Crittenden with a load of timber for camp Lowell.

We understand that work will commence in earnest on Camp Lowell next Monday. It has been delayed in consequence, as we are told, of want of teams.

SEE notice for building vault for county. H. Bendell, Superintendent Indian affairs, has an advertisement. Isabel Gomez de Smith will do business in her own name.

Col. Morrow paid off the troops at Lowell on Tuesday. About $10,000 was disbursed and the boys will no doubt be happy for a few days.

Burner's train of six wagons brought this week from the Santa Rita Mountains for Fish & Co., about 10,000 feet of excellent lumber.

The Village Council had four meetings this week. The only business of any importance transacted was accepting the resignation of J. S. Thayer marshal and appointing Francisco Esparza in his stead.

The District Court, Judge Titus presiding, was in session last Monday and adjourned for a week. The case of the People of the Territory vs. John Willis for the murder of Robt. Shoup, is set for Monday next. Sisto, indicted for murder, will be tried next.

THERE are many complaints of dull times, but building and improving the town is going on and business is quite as good and money is quite as plenty as we have ever seen it at this season in any previous year. The dullest season is always just before harvest.

GEN. ALLEN has his store at Lowell nearly completed, it is a large and very convenient building. He has dug a well and at the depth of thirty feet found an abundance of pure soft water. He is preparing to make his house a pleasant resort for town people as well as those who live there.

It is impossible to pass along the streets of Tucson on horse-back or in a carriage without constantly being attacked by a miserable, worthless lot of dogs that were evidently created for no other purpose than to annoy people. This nuisance should be abated in some way; the owners should take care of and keep them out of the streets.

TULLY & OCHOA dispatched one train to camp Grant and one to camp Apache this week, also two teams to Tuma for a threshing and other agricultural tools for the farmers on the San Pedro. Last year the farmers in that settlement lost a portion of their grain in consequence of the want of the necessary agricultural implements, and were pleased to know that this difficulty will be remedied this year.

Two furnaces are nearly completed at Sierra mines, and the work of smelting silver and lead ores will soon commence. Samuel Hughes & Co. sent some experienced smelters this week to examine the mines, with a view of putting up works as soon as possible. About thirty men are at work there now, and if the ores pay as assays and tests indicate, this will soon become one of the most popular and prosperous camps in the Territory. Mr. Hughes has had from the commencement great confidence in this district, and has kept men steadily at work there for a year and a half. We hope and believe that he will receive a rich reward for his enterprise.

PERSONAL.—L. W. Carr came in on the stage Wednesday. F. L. Austin and William Dempsey have gone to Sanford.

J. W. Swilling came in from Salt river this week.

W. W. Williams left by Tuesday's stage for California to purchase goods for the firm of Lord & Williams.

Dr. O'Brien came to camp Lowell on Thursday from McDowell and leaves for Grant to-day. He has been the post physician for some time past at McDowell.

James E. Roberts, agent for the White Mountain Apaches, came in on Thursday, and says that the Indians are behaving well on his reserve and are contented.

P. O'Reilly came in from Kennedy's Wells, 13 miles this side of camp Grant. He is putting up a fine station there, and knows how to keep it.

P. McGarrick came in from camp Grant last Saturday, and says building is going on slowly at that post. He has located a valuable ranch nine miles from the post with plenty of water, agricultural and grazing land.

John H. Marion, editor of the Miner, spent several days in town visiting his friends, and left for home on Tuesday's stage. He has been an able and faithful champion of the rights and interests of the people of this Territory, and we hope he and the Miner may live many years and enjoy the peace and prosperity that is now dawning upon us.

Peter Kitchen came in on Monday from the Patroero ranch. He has good crops of wheat, and it matters little to him whether corn is worth ten cents a bushel or not. He found out several years ago that it was more profitable to feed it to hogs and make bacon and lard, than to sell it for any price he could get. The result is that he always has on hand a few old rusty Mexican dollars, while most of his neighbors who depend upon the sale of grain, are a few short all the time.

CAMP APACHE, A. T., April 23, 1873.—In a former letter I mentioned the fact that two Mexicans had been missing for some time. Their bodies were found a few days ago by an Indian, about six miles from this Post, on the Fort Wingate road. These men had been in the employ of Mr. Hooker, had been discharged, and had started for their homes in Cupero, New Mexico. They had about $200 between them and three or four pack animals, and were undoubtedly murdered for their money. Suspicion rests upon two other Mexicans, who left here about the same time. From indications the murdered men must have been shot near the road, their bodies carried about a mile and thrown over the cliff where they were found. The suspected murderers are well known and were seen in Cupero with considerable money in their possession. There is strong feeling in the matter here and an earnest desire to have the murderers arrested. Lieutenants W. U. Manning and P. S. Bonner, Dr. Soule and Mr. Cronly went out and buried the remains on the 22d inst.

The Indians here continue to steal now and then and while they should unquestionably be punished for it, no one seems inclined to take the initiatory step. Why not hold each individual Indian responsible for his acts and abolish all tribal organization? It must come to this and why not first as well as last. This nonsense about the "big father at Washington" is getting to be like the "little hatchet" affair—too old; it is about time to regard them as rational beings, capable of distinguishing right from wrong. As for the influence of the chiefs over their tribes, all who have had any experience among the Apache nation know that the chiefs have not the slightest influence over their people, and more especially where peace making is concerned. I see by the San Diego papers of the 1st. that they have an Indian kleptomaniac there. Nothing very wonderful in that. Why, here in Camp Apache they are about all klept's of the first water; and if they want any more or better specimens at San Diego than the one they have, let them send here.

131 head of beef cattle were brought in on the 22d inst. from Camp Grant, for the use of the Post.

Lieutenant Thos. Garvey and Mr. and Mrs. Cronly returned here on the 10th from a short visit to Tucson. Capt. Meredith, our Post Trader is suffering slightly from rheumatism. There are only three ladies at the Post just now—Mrs. Meredith, Mrs. Cronly and Mrs. Dunbar.

Trout is in everybody's mouth; all that have any leisure are in pursuit of the speckled beauties. Capt. Meredith and some friends went out the other day and hooked quite a number, some of which weighed two pounds. The grass is coming up finely and the weather quite warm. There is a rumor in camp that a party of Navajos were in this vicinity. "squaw stealing." They can't take too many or be too quick about it.

It is rumored at Washington that the Mexican government stands ready to make reparation for the losses caused by the raids from her territory upon our soil, and to this end proposes to grant to the United States both Sinaloa and Sonora.
